New York, NY – April 3, 2017 – Focus Financial Partners ('Focus'), a leading international partnership of independent, fiduciary wealth management firms, today announced that Lake Street Advisors ('Lake Street'), an independent registered investment advisor located in Boston, Massachusetts and Portsmouth, New Hampshire, joined the Focus partnership on April 1, 2017. Lake Street is the sixth Focus partner firm in Massachusetts, bolstering Focus' presence in New England.

Co-founding partners Bob Goyette and Greg Van Slyke originally met 20 years ago while serving as senior executives at another wealth management firm. They formed Lake Street Advisors in 2003 to provide holistic family office services to wealthy families. Since its establishment, the firm has added Carolyn Decker, Melissa Olszak and Buddy Webb as key leaders in the organization, and now counts nearly 30 team members. Lake Street has built its reputation as a premier multi-family office in greater New England, advising generations of ultra-high-net-worth families on investment management, insurance strategies, tax and estate planning.

"At Lake Street, we're committed to providing our clients and their families with the tools to solve their needs for the years to come and cultivating our firm's future leaders to build upon our strength for sustained growth," said Bob Goyette, Co-Founder and Partner at Lake Street Advisors. "Joining the Focus partnership allows us to attain our goal of growing our business for the long-term, better serving the complex needs of our clients and enabling the next generation of leaders at Lake Street."

"Focus is committed to cultivating an environment where firms can concentrate on what they do best – offering holistic fiduciary financial advice to their clients," said Rudy Adolf, Founder and CEO of Focus.
